VIRGINIA JENKINSON

If you notice anything different about this week's issue of the NEWS it may be because our good old pal, Fred Hawkins, is at home having a wonderful time while we slave away. Fred, Pappy to us, underwent some serious abdominal surgery two weeks ago and is now fretting away because he can't eat a thick T-bone steak and is being fed soft foods only. This Englishman, who has served as mechanical superintendent of the NEWS for more than six years, is as dependable as they come, and only because of a good scare from his doctor did he leave the trials and tribulations of the backshop to have the necessary work done.

He's doing fine, but we do miss his hearty spirit around here and we'll all be mighty glad when we can hear some of his favorite cussin'. However, we're lucky to have here another Fred . . . Frederic Scheweppe to take his place and we're so relieved to know that Pappy has nothing seriously wrong with him.

We have just received a picture of the new Howell White home in West Cheshire, Conn. It is a white frame so typical of New England. The Whites report that they have been very fortunate in finding a home meeting most of the specifications they set for themselves when they went house shopping. It has 14 rooms plus woodshed and 3-car garage, and is 16 minutes from Mr. White's work. It is located in a town of 8,000, supporting the best schools in southern Connecticut. The only requirement that was not met is the size of the acreage. They wanted 15 acres, but are happy to settle for 1.5 acres.

British Home To Celebrate Annual Event

English traditions will live again at the annual Garden Party planned by the Princess Anne Chapter, Daughters of the British Empire, next Saturday afternoon at the British Home for the Aged, 647 Manzanita Ave., Sierra Madre.

Honored guests at the event will be residents of the Home, many of whom have a most interesting background of residence in all parts of the British Dominions before making the United States their permanent home. In recent years there has been quite an expansion programme at the Home, including several new cottages, and also the beautifully-appointed dining hall, with its fine view of the Sierra Madre mountains.

Here a typically English-style Tea will be served by members of the Chapter, card games will be available, and "lucky dips" (grab bag) will provide an additional diversion.

The public is invited to this social event, especially anyone interested in seeing the facilities available for "Golden Agers" at the Home.

Further information may be obtained from Mrs. L. H. Roberts, 359 N. Encinitas Ave., Monrovia, EL 9-1456.

Chamber of Commerce Set for 'City Beautiful' Promotion

A city beautification program, sponsored by the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce, soon will be launched as the result of a C. of C. Board of Directors' meeting held Tuesday at the Bank of Sierra Madre. A campaign to eliminate and further prevent the dirt and litter of the city's streets and sidewalks will be an important part of the program.

A second step in the beautification project will be taken by Al Morgan, C. of C. president, when he appoints a special committee of prominent citizens to develop plans for presentation to City Council.

Besides encouraging both merchants and their customers to keep the sidewalks clean, part of the promotion will be to encourage the planting of trees in particular areas where they are so obviously needed—including some of the down-

A MELODIUS CUSTOM, once temporarily interrupted, has been revived in Sierra Madre with the playing of the organ chimes at the Congregational Church over an amplifying system at the 5 o'clock Vesper Hour. Initiated in 1941 by Rudolph Hartman, who rigged the broadcasting system and also played the chimes, the revival of the custom has come through his help and that of the new minister, Rev.

George W. Lindsay. Of special importance in bringing the "Singing Tower" back to life is the group of young people offering to put the tradition on a permanent basis by playing the chimes every evening. They are Patricia Mihalovic, Linda Black, Kathleen McKesson, Linda Reavis, and Carol Ogren, latter of whom is seen in the picture with Mrs. Sam Kirk who supervises the group.

"Mara" Makes 8th Ensenada Race

In the all-time record fleet of 178 sailing vessels leaving Newport Harbor today in the Ensenada race will be several Sierra Madreans, among them Barney Huber aboard the "Mara," a 31-foot sloop owned by his father, B. C. Huber of Sierra Madre, who first acquainted his son with a sportsman's sailing rig when Barney was barely grown enough to grasp a tiller.

Although he is married and the father of two children, Barney is still so young compared to other sailors of his experience that he might be called the "Pacific Child," which was the name of the small, 32-foot sailing ship that won so much attention during the Honolulu race beginning July 4, 1947. He was one of four aboard the "Pacific Child," when the spunky little vessel finished sixth in class "C" that included ships reaching as much as 50 feet in length, and also won twelfth place in the entire fleet of 33 that ranged to contestants of much larger size.

His second experience in long distance ocean competition occurred last June when he flew to the East Coast to go aboard the "Nalu II" owned by Richard Stewart who had his boat shipped to the Atlantic from Newport, Calif., to enter the Bermuda race, famous for its unpredictable weather and sometimes dangerous crossings. Aside from a bit of rugged water while entering the Gulf Stream they encountered nothing but pleasant weather while winning second place in class "C" with a happy voyage of approximately five days.

In the Ensenada race that begins at noon today from Newport, the Huber's family boat, the "Mara," will not be a newcomer to the course that totals 130 miles. In the Newport Harbor-Ensenada International Yacht race, sponsored by the Newport Ocean Sailing Association, the "Mara" is the only two-time winner since the competition was organized in 1948. She has placed in every one of these events, and has won practically every Southern California ocean race at least once.

Neither will the race today be a new course to Barney Huber, considering that he has made the run seven times before. With him, besides his Dad, will be Charles Plumber of Balboa Island and Walt DeManuel of Palos Verdes. Whether they win one of the trophies offered by several governments and yacht club organizations is of secondary importance to

Polio Strikes Here After Vaccine Given

James Randall Phipps, the 13-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Phipps, 665 Brookside Lane, was stricken with polio Sunday after being given anti-polio shots April 19. Now at the Los Angeles County Hospital, the child is said to be making improvement with temperatures running to normal most of the time.

NO FINE TIME

People who hold Sierra Madre public library books too long, meaning just about everybody, may now enjoy the luxury of so doing without paying a fine — until May 23.

That's because the library here will be closed Friday, May 6, until Monday, May 23, while moving into the new building at 440 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. Miss Lulu Moore, librarian, has asked that patrons hold all books during that period regardless of customary deadlines.

Tax Election First Defeat For Schools

Sierra Madre lost the first school tax election in its history last Friday when 841 voters said "No" to a proposed tax increase from 90 cents to $1.45 per hundred assessed valuation. Those who voted "Yes" for a 55-cent increase for an indefinite period totaled 597.

The results came as a surprise to many who had heard Dr. C. C. Carpenter, assistant superintendent of Los Angeles County Schools, when he remarked at the January meeting of the local School Board that a tax election had never been defeated in the county.

However, according to Mrs. Isabelle F. Steele, chairman of the Sierra Madre Property Owners' Committee which fought the proposed increase, the surprise was a pleasant one to those who shared the committee's opinion in its advocating a "hold the line" policy.

Members of the School Board and their sympathizers naturally were disappointed but have made no statement except to say that their immediate concern is to study the problem of the curtailments that must be made. They say that current expenses cannot be met at current standards with the present revenue. They hope to make the necessary curtailments without affecting classroom teaching.

It is believed that a new tax election will be presented within another 12 months.

Voting at the four polling places ran as follows: Canyon Swimming Pool Bathhouse—9 yes, 146 no. City Hall—201 yes, 272 no. City School—173 yes, 247 no. Park House—131 yes, 246 no.

Eddie Robertson Now At Veterans Hospital

Eddie Robertson, former postmaster who suffered a second light stroke March 13, has left the Belvedere Hospital in Los Angeles and now is in the Veterans Hospital at Sawtelle. Friends who wish to write to him are asked to address their cards to Ward 4-AW.

Coordinating Council Meets With Teen-Agers

Sierra Madre Teen-agers gave further proof of the development and versatility of their newly organized club Tuesday night when they became the first organization of its kind to host the Sierra Madre Coordinating Council.

Nursery School to Keep Summer Class

The Sierra Madre Community Nursery School will have its usual summer school program of eight weeks, June 20 to August 12, according to Mrs. Marjorie Green, director.

Full enrollment is planned in all groups. The school's modern building is insulated against heat and there are many large shade trees in the yard, thus providing an ideal setting for summer activities.

Since many children in the oldest group will be "graduating" and not staying on through the summer, there will be room for several new children providing they will be old enough to enter kindergarten in the fall.

Because of the long waiting list parents are advised to register their children very young. There is no obligation involved in registering. Names may be removed from the waiting list on request if parents change their plans. However, early registration gives the child priority when he is old enough to enter.

Square Dances Scheduled to Close May 27

Scheduled to end May 27, the Square Dance classes sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce every Friday evening are now at their peak, with adults as well as children enjoying the instruction of Isabel Connaughton of Catalina Island.

Conducted in the paved parking area immediately east of Roberts Market, the classes begin at 7 p.m. each Friday and consist of two thirty-minute periods, or possibly three if all of the 190 children enrolled show up at once.

After the children have had their turns, all adults who are interested may participate in their own square dancing.

The lessons began March 12 to run for a 12-week instruction course. Prizes will be awarded to children showing the greatest amount of progress, and to those wearing the best costumes.

Parents who are interested have been asked to call Mrs. Harold Roberts, chairman of the project, at CU. 5-9348, or the Chamber of Commerce at CU. 5-6226.

At their Adobe Clubhouse, 37 E. Montecito Ave., they managed all arrangements and served refreshments during the evening that included a regular meeting of the Coordinating Council for the election of 1955 council officers.

Election results were: Mrs. Edith Dane, second term president; Rev. Raynor Smith, second term vice president; William Hawkins, Jr., treasurer; Mrs. Patrick Chase, recording secretary; and Alyce Herrold, second term corresponding secretary. They officially will be installed June 7 at a dinner meeting shared by the Kiwanis and Lions Clubs at the Woman's clubhouse.

Frazer Dougherty, representing the Youth Activities Association created from the Coordinating Council to sponsor the Teen-agers, introduced the 25 members of the youths club who attended. Donations to the club, which will be given a name at its next meeting, May 11, were acknowledged from the Tama-Pit-Kins Campfire Girls, Kiwanis, American Legion Auxiliary, and also from the Civic Club which donated the first month's rent in April.

Dr. Donald McCormack of the Exchange Club announced a rummage sale for the benefit of the Teen-agers project to be held tomorrow and Saturday in the lot adjoining the Congregational Church. In case of rain the former La Lone cleaning plant on Sierra Madre Blvd. will be used.

The Teen-agers also heard William Schwartz, chairman of the Cemetery Association, report to the council that $500 was the goal for the first year

Exchange Club Rummage Sale To Be May 6-7

The rummage sale being given by the Exchange Club to raise money for youth activities in Sierra Madre will be held tomorrow from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. and on Saturday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

If the weather permits, the sale will be held in the open lot at 154 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. In case of rain it will be held indoors in the vacant store at 82 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

Door prizes will be given to holders of lucky numbers. Robert Thomas, chairman of the Youth Activities Committee, will represent the Exchange Club in the new Youth Activities Organization.

Dr. Donald McCormack, chairman of the publicity committee, was appointed to represent the Exchange Club at Coordinating Council meetings.

The members of the Exchange Club again wish to thank Sierra Madreans for their donations of a great variety of items for the rummage sale which will make interesting shopping for those who attend the sale.

Lady Luck Smiles; Boy's Injuries Limit

A fortunate young man, Paul Stubbs, 10 years old, of 160 Lowell, owes his good fortune either to the quick action of Dean Johnson, driver for the Wistaria Cab Co., or, perhaps, just to Lady Luck.

Last Friday, according to police, he swerved his bicycle into the path of the cab. The accident occurred at about 5 p.m. on Sierra Madre Blvd., between Baldwin and Mountain Trail. Johnson, driving the taxi, was able to slam on the brakes sufficiently to avoid serious injury to the boy.

Paul was taken to the Medical Center, treated for minor bruises, and sent home.

John Conzelman Named Production Manager

John Conzelman, 658 Mariposa Ave., moved into a new job Monday when he was appointed production manager for the Gilman Scientific Instrument Company in Pasadena. Conzelman, a member of the Sierra Madre School Board who has been prominent in civic affairs here for ten years, formerly was employed as general manager for the Fonda Corporation in Glendale.

TICKETS TO GIGANTIC BOY SCOUT ROSE BOWL CIRCUS May 21 are reported selling like proverbial hotcakes, as local boys vie for the prize of a free round-trip flight to San Francisco via Western Air Lines, plus Gray Line sightseeing tour of the Bay Area, for winner and his parents. Purchasers of adult tickets at $1 (children with adults free) will see a spectacular 12-act, 10,000-boy pageant of Scouting skills. At Western Air Lines headquarters, Transportation Agent Eldon Cox describes prize winner's flight to Den Mothers (right) Mrs. Altha Bogart of Sierra Madre and (left) Mrs. E. J. Shanahan, and Cubs Keith Bogart, of Sierra Madre, and Richard Woodford and Michael Bekins of Pasadena.

Editor's Note: The opinions expressed in Mr. Shippey's column are not necessarily those of the editors and publishers of the NEWS. If you disagree with Mr. Shippey, who asks, "What Do You Think?", please address your letters to this paper or to Mr. Shippey. Naturally, we cannot use letters which are abusive or unsigned. We not only invite, but encourage you

Here I am with my begging bowl again. Even if the Salk vaccine fulfills our fondest hopes, it will be a long time before most of us are vaccinated and years before many thousands of persons already crippled by polio can receive the treatment which will restore them, or come as near to restoring them as anything can. In our little city there are at least a dozen persons who have been greatly benefited by the Sister Kenny Hospital and Clinic at El Monte, the only Sister Kenny hospital in the West. In Oregon, not only children under 10 but expectant mothers are on the preferred list and will get the polio vaccine first, for it is a pretty tragic thing when an expectant mother comes down with polio.

These things all remind us we are not out of the woods yet, by a long sight, and we had better help keep the Sister Kenny Hospital going until we are out of the woods.

Mrs. E. G. Meyer, 635 E. Grandview, is handling the drive for Sister Kenny funds here. Let's send her a dollar or two, or more. I wish I could send more than I shall, but every little bit helps.

Well, the increased school tax failed to carry. And what does that mean? Probably it means that six months or so from now we shall have to have another election and vote it. If a thing has to be done, we always do it eventually.

The push button age is wonderful. We can now push buttons to open doors and windows and do a thousand things we used to do by manual labor. If automation keeps on at this rate we soon can do all the world's physical and much of its mental work by push button—and then there won't be anything left to do but push one more button and blow the whole thing up.

Many of us wonder how Las Vegas gambling establishments can afford to pay night club entertainers such salaries as

Profiles of Local Artists

Adele Richardson

By Sewall Clark

This week the NEWS presents the sixth in a series of articles to appear from time to time, devoted to the human interest and local color found in the lives of Sierra Madre artists whose works are now on permanent exhibit in the Parish House of the Episcopal Church of the Ascension. Because Sierra Madre, among other things, long has been known as an artists' haven these articles will be concerned with the individual artist's way of life, with personality, more than prestige. Order of appearance will have nothing to do with the artist's rating either as professional or amateur.

Adele Richardson, whose painting is more her avocation than a profession, is a British subject who has lived in her own home in Sierra Madre since 1938. Granted a permanent residency by the United States Government, she evidently took the word "permanent" quite seriously considering that she has never been away from that home for a full 24-hour period except last year when the threat of flood forced her to leave overnight, and once before, when a radio show, "Hobby Lobby," paid her round trip expenses from Sierra Madre to New York City in 1939. The reason for her appearance on the radio program—her hobby of collecting family antiques—is quite obvious to anyone who visits her home at 317 Grove. From a modest, vine covered exterior one enters a living room rich in history that reaches not only to Canada and England but as far as India where her grandfather fought in the Indian Mutiny. Burning logs in the fireplace and an electric organ beyond it form a background to a room full of antique furniture so rare and beautiful that the conversation cannot be limited to the single subject of art for very long.

Adele, who was born in Toronto, Canada, first used a paint brush to copy pictures on the walls of her home that changed from Canada, the West Indies, Wales, and then to Devonshire, England. Although a series of illnesses in the family interrupted her experiments in art, her work eventually led to sculpturing which she later renewed along with her painting at the Polytechnic School of Fine Arts in London during the winter of 1937-38 after her first visit to Sierra Madre the previous year.

She had found Sierra Madre through an aunt in Pasadena who wrote to her in England, telling about the wonderful climate here. After her visit in 1936, when she first studied under the direction of Alfred James Dewey, she returned to Devonshire, sold a bit of property, and returned to Sierra Madre for that "permanent residency."

Although her art work has been devoted mostly to portraits and landscapes, her painting on display in the permanent exhibit at the Parish House, Episcopal Church of the Ascension, is a seascape—which is understandable considering that she has seen so many seascapes in different parts of the world. Describing her work as "spasmodic," she currently is enthusiastic about her developing technique as inspired by Martin Mondrus in an Adult Education art class at Pasadena City College.

Even though her activities in the fields of art, including sculpturing and fine silver work as well as painting, are major factors in her life these pursuits are merely some of many. Taking care of the half-acre around her house requires time and effort, and when it is the hour for tea and toast there must be a fire in the fireplace whenever weather requires. All of five feet tall, she does most of her own work and still finds time to enjoy her leisure.

Her independence in these matters is further strengthened

The Sierra Madre NEWS

To the Editor:

It is hard to believe that the Property Owners Association allowed themselves to be so misguided as to think that the rejection of the requested school tax increase would be a benefit to them.

In 1952 we sold our property in Sierra Madre. In 1954, after eighteen months in Europe, we returned to the community with the full intention of becoming Sierra Madre property owners once more. That now seems unlikely. And the main reason for our reluctance to buy here is not fear of flood, fire or increased taxes but concern over the kind of narrow, limited thinking which dictated the tax rejection policy, and the deterioration of the Sierra Madre public schools which now seems inevitable.

No family that is concerned with the future of its children and its country will settle in a town without first inquiring thoroughly into the standards and conditions of its schools. And no such family will knowingly put its children in a school that may go on double sessions or will have forty-five to fifty pupils in a class only because of the laziness, shortsightedness, and selfishness of its taxpayers.

If anyone thinks that the fact that Sierra Madre has the lowest school tax limit in the valley—and perhaps even in the county—is a good selling point, he should think again. He needs to realize that its schools will be comparably low in educational standards and comparably handicapped.

It is a pity to have a wonderful town like Sierra Madre hamstrung by people who can see no farther than their noses—or their purse-strings.

Sincerely yours,

VIRGINIA PITTINGER.

Hanlon Award Presented to Henry N. Wade, Jr.

Henry N. Wade, Sr., former Sierra Madrean, has been awarded the highest honor in the natural gasoline industry and one of the ranking awards in the petroleum industry, the Hanlon Award.

The presentation was made to Mr. Wade at a recent session of the 34th annual convention of the Natural Gasoline Association of America which was held in Dallas, Tex.

The citation read in part: "With this award we are officially recognizing the major role played by this man in the technical advances of our industry. We are honoring an engineer who pioneered with original thinking and ideas in the design of natural gas processing plants. His ideas and the resulting plants have given the industry an increased yield of products by more economical means while at the same time improving ultimate recovery of products from the reservoirs where they originate."

Mr. Wade who is process consultant with a Denver, Colo., firm, was the first man to design and supervise construction of a high pressure cycling plant for the purpose of taking wet gas from an underground reservoir, removing the hydrocarbon liquids and returning the gas to the producing formation to maintain pressure.

Mr. Wade lived in Sierra Madre for a number of years and he and Mrs. Wade plan to return to their home at 673 Mariposa in the very near future. His son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry N. Wade, Jr., are currently living at the local address.

Canadian Tour for Hjordis Parker

Word has been received from Hjordis Parker that she is enjoying her two-week tour of western Canada which has taken her to Winnipeg, Regina, Camrose, Edmonton, Calgary and Vancouver.

Everywhere she has stopped, she heard glowing descriptions of the piano quartet, sponsored by the "Celebrity Concert Series," who had arrived with their four pianos over icy roads and given very fine performances.

One of the girls particularly impressed everyone by her ability to be a good sport under the most difficult circumstances. Mrs. Parker was most surprised and gratified to learn this girl was one of Sierra Madre's own, Moreland Kortkamp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy C. Kortkamp, 460 W. Montecito.

by English legend. The visitor, putting aside his tea in what once was the favorite cup of Napoleon Bonaparte, may be warned not to help in building the fire because of the belief that "you must not touch another man's fire unless you have known him for seven years."

Such a warning, of course, leaves many a visitor free to enjoy his comfort in an atmosphere of Chippendale, the Court of Napoleon, and English hospitality — without lifting more than a fragile teacup. The atmosphere of Adele's home is, in fact, so rare as to make it difficult for the visitor to remember that he is still living in Sierra Madre, California—the United States of America.

Adele, however, remembers the address. She is so happy here that she has turned down

'Calling Out' Ceremonies and Awards Highlight Scout Meet

The Mount Wilson District Court of Honor at City School Auditorium Monday sparkled with an Explorer Silver Award and an Order of the Arrow "calling out" ceremony.

Ship 391 was the host Scout unit for the Court, and under the direction of Skipper Frederic Clarke and Mate Leonard Barrett presented the opening and closing ceremonies.

District A and A Chairman Don Warfel introduced Art Rittterath, Council Commodore, then gave the invocation to open the Court officially.

offers to live in English mansions. She has found her own castle—a vine trimmed cottage on a quiet street.

Advancement and Merit Badge presentations were made to Christopher Mecca, Jefferson Mecca, and Richard Sewell of Troop 376, to Steven Clawson and Willis McComas of Troop 388, to David Austin, Richard Hunter, Jerome Meier, Roger Summers, and Richard Thatcher of Post 388, and to Ronald Finn and Robert Willis of Ship 391.

Roger Summers was given his Life Scout award by Bishop Summerhays of the Church of Jesus Christ, LDS, and Richard Gold Palm by his father, Howard Hunter, President of Pasadena Stake, Church of Jesus Christ, LDS.

The big award of the Court, the Explorer Silver Award, went to Richard Summerhays of Post 388 by Les Rydman, former Council A & A Chairman, and presently a member of the Council Board of Directors.

Ronald Bottema of Post 388 entertained the Court with three vocal renditions, and marching music was presented by Loren Jenkins.

The Order of the Arrow ceremony was introduced by Richard Hartley, District Scout Executive, and seven very surprised persons were "called out" to participate in the "ordeal" at Camp San Antonio this weekend. They were Willis McComas II and Willis McComas, Post 388 Advisor; Ronald Bottema, Post 388; Walter Goodwin, Scoutmaster, Christopher Mecca, and Robert Joehns of Troop 376, and Marcus Woodward, Mt. Wilson District Chairman. The Order of the Arrow performers put on two dances of the Sioux Indians, in full costume.

The "Oscar," which is awarded the Scouting unit having the best percentage of visitor attendance, was won by Ship 391, with District Commissioner Leon Jenkins making the presentation.

After the Court was closed, many remained to see the "War on the Seas" film presented by Skipper Clarke of Ship 391. About 50 persons visited the Tom Willis residence for a farewell party and presentation to Skipper Clarke, who has been transferred to a post in the Hawaiian Islands.

Children of Special Needs to Be Helped

"Children with special needs in the normal group" will be considered during a four-week summer workshop to be held at Pacific Oaks Friends School, Pasadena, in cooperation with Occidental College, Los Angeles.

Teachers, administrators and parents will consider the gifted and retarded child, as well as the physically handicapped and the emotionally disturbed, in the light of knowledge from related fields such as medicine, psychiatry and social work.

Further information is contained in a brochure now available from Pacific Oaks Friends School, 714 W. California St., Pasadena. Funds for the workshop are provided by a grant from the Rosenberg Foundation of San Francisco.

NO OBSTACLE

Being weighted down with money seldom hinders one from swimming in the sea of life.

WHAT DO YOU THINK

$25,000 a week. It's no mystery to most of us who have been there. They get most of it back at the gaming tables.

What do you think about the Finn twins, and what should we ordinary folk do about them? I think they are being unjustly and viciously treated.

Uncle Sam sold a surplus plane to a school district. Later the Finns bought and paid for it, feeling they had a perfect legal right to buy it. Asserting the school had no right to sell it, Uncle Sam seized the plane. After failing in many efforts to get the U.S. attorney in Los Angeles to consider their claims, the Finns performed a citizens' arrest on him. For that they were jailed for "interfering with a Federal officer in performance of his duty."

After that a Federal court ruled that the Finns had been right all along, had a right to buy the plane and the government had no right to take it from them. Yet because their citizens' arrest embarrassed the U.S. attorney for perhaps half an hour, the Finns are being jailed in a mental institution in Missouri, where they have no friends and people know nothing of the case.

The Finns served as pilots in the war and give plenty of evidence of being far above normal in intelligence. What are the American Legion and VFW doing for them?

Why shouldn't a lot of us write the President and our Congressmen about them? To me it looks like cruel and unusual punishment to send two good citizens to prison for doing what they thought they had a right to do, especially after a Federal court has decided the plane really was theirs.

A criminal record and a sentence of a year in jail are mighty poor pay for two men who served their country well when it needed men.

NEGLECTANCE

Many a man becomes the victim of circumstances because he allows himself to be victimized.

Shopping Bag Wins Gold Cup

Shopping Bag Bakeries sweet rolls and coffee cakes were judged the finest at the Seventh Annual Southern California Bakers Forum held April 26 and 27 at the Ambassador Hotel, Los Angeles.

The annual competition is designed to raise the level of quality and craftsmanship among bakers by giving recognition to superior products.

This honor winning coffee cake adds to the list of Gold Cup Awards won by Shopping Bag Bakeries in previous years for the best loaf of retail white bread and for decorated cakes, plus many Awards of Merit for their cakes, cookies, variety bread and miscellaneous baked items.

In addition to the 1955 Gold Cup Award, individual Shopping Bag Bakeries received Awards of Merit for their variety breads, sweet rolls and coffee cake, novelty cakes and white bread.

Shopping Bag Bakeries won these honors in competition with all Southern California bakery concerns which shows outstanding achievement for a bakery that has been in business only 10 years.

MEN, WOMEN AND PIANOS
by Arthur Loesser

Arthur Loesser, pianist, teacher and musicologist, has written the social history of the piano in his comprehensive book, "Men, Women, and Pianos." He traces the mechanical development of the instrument, and the evolution of its music from the harpsichord of 1648 to the mighty concert pianoforte of today.

Composers, publishers, manufacturers, the true artist and the charlatan; the place the piano attained in the home and in society; its usefulness to socially ambitious mothers—all are treated in this scholarly but eminently readable book which sparkles with wit and satire.

One of the surprising features of the book is the exposition of the fads in the types of music performed, two of the most popular pieces for piano ever written being "The Battle of Prague," complete with marches, bugle-calls, shots and the cries of the wounded which reigned as a favorite for over half a century, and "The Maiden's Prayer," a sentimental ditty which pleased the American public for an equal period.

This is a long book, well worth the reading by anyone interested in history, music, or fine writing.

ACT OF GOD by Margaret Kennedy

Life was relatively tranquil for Dickie and Christina Pattison until the disappearance of Conrad Swann, the local celebrity. In the hectic weeks that followed, the Pattisons' marriage was nearly wrecked. Christina felt impelled to care for the children Swann had abandoned and Dickie got involved in village politics over the disposition of a weird piece of sculpture that Swann had left behind. Her portrayal of the children is skillful and one wishes they appeared in more of the chapters instead of so much of some of the disagreeable characters in the book.

Other books added during the month are: Non-fiction: Two Minutes till Midnight, Davis; An American in India, Bedding; Ideas and Opinions, Einstein; Childhood and Society, Erikson; Exploring Mars, Richardson; My Zoo Family, Martini; Bottoms Up, Skinner; Hi-fi Handbook, Kendall; Around the U.S.A. in 1000 Pictures, Runyon; Susan B. Anthony, Anthony; John Sloan, a Painter's Life, Brooks; To the One I Love the Best, Bemelmans; Gertrude Lawrence as Mrs. A. Aldrich, Doc Holiday, Myers.

Fiction: Good Shepherd, Forster; Mask of Alexander, Albrand; Mouse That Roared, Wiberly; Run Silent Run Deep, Beach; Cheerful Captive, Cooper; Sultan and the Lady, Linklater; Face Value, Starfish; Homecoming, Osaragi; Time Out for Turkey, Dodge; Pray for a Brave Heart, MacInnes; Venture Into Darkness, Hobart; Juniper Tree, Baldwin; Sincerely, Willis Wayde, Marquand.

Science fiction titles by Castle, Boucher, Kuebler. Mystery titles by Innes, Gardner, Manors.

WHY NOT?

"Darling, darling," cried the young salesman as he burst into his home one evening. "Guess what, I just got a commission in the Air Force." "A commission again?" the young bride wailed. "Why can't you get a regular salary just once in your life?"

Scanning the Sportscene

With Bob Brogger

And we thought Casey Stengel was the only manager who could do stuff like this . . .

Nothing short of a miracle would lift either Paul Richards of the Baltimore Orioles or Chuck Dressen of the Washington Senators into contention for the 1955 American League pennant. But fans were served notice on opening day in Washington, April 11, that when jut-jawed Paul and the conversational Chuck meet, they are sure to see some unusual happenings.

And that they did. Things started popping right away, in the very first inning, when Richards' patented pick-off play, successful 8 times in 24 exhibition games, nailed Eddie Yost of Washington at second base.

The managerial brains whirled some more in the sixth inning in a weird sequence of events that saw Dressen insert a pinch-runner for a pinch-runner and Richards outfox himself on a change of pitchers.

The pinch-runner situation went this way. Rookie Jess Levan had just pinch-singled a run across the plate for the Senators and Pedro Ramos went into run for Levan. A wild throw on the next play sent Ramos to third.

Dressen flashed the squeeze sign to batter Bob Porterfield, but the Cuban Ramos at third failed to catch the signal. So Dressen hurriedly yanked pinch runner Ramos for another pinch-runner, Bob Oldis. By this time, Richards had caught up with the maneuvering and Dressen was forced to change his strategy. Porterfield swung away and his long fly brought in Oldis after the catch.

It was in the midst of the same inning that Richards out-juggled himself. He had started with righthander Lou Kretlow on the mound. But with a Washington rally going on and little pinch-hitter Ernie Oravetz in the left-handed batter's box, Richards lifts Kretlow in favor of lefty Bill Biller.

Then came the final blow, as Miller got set to pitch, Richards' jaw dropped in astonishment. Here was Oravetz stepping across the plate and into the righthanded batter's box. What Richards hadn't been aware of when changing pitchers was that Rookie Oravetz was a switch hitter and especially equipped for such a pitching change. Oravetz then drove in a run with a grounder which Second Baseman Don Leppert threw away.

By the way, after the game, the official scorer (the poor man who makes up the box score) was seen trying to leap off the stadium roof. And he did. But he was saved by a couple of gentlemen who got to him in time to catch him.

POURING FROM CANS
The secret of pouring liquid from a can is to make two holes in the can instead of one, about an inch apart. The one hole is for the liquid to pour from, the other hole to let the air into the can.

THE DOOR KEY
That very important door key will not be evasive any more when the housewife returns from the grocery, if she will sew a large sized dress hook inside her handbag, near the top, on which to hang the key.

Radcliffe Alumnae Plans Annual Tour

Radcliffe College Alumnae of Southern California is planning its seventh annual modern house tour. Three homes in the Sierra Madre area have been selected for the tour slated for Saturday, May 21.

The first residence is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Kaufman, 1354 Michillinda. John Nyberg was the architect and Harold Bissner, Jr., the contractor.

The second home on display is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Stewart R. Kennard, Jr., 1000 W. Orange Grove. Harold Zook is the architect.

The G. I. Forman home at 205 W. Orange Grove is the third house to be shown in this area. The architect was Theodore Pietsch.

Mrs. Arthur Shipman and Mrs. Charles E. Cowen, Jr., will be among the hostesses to show the homes.

Tickets for the tour are $2.50 and may be obtained by contacting the Pasadena tour chairman, Mrs. Karen Monsour, 1180 S. Oak Knoll, Pasadena, SYcamore 5-2408.

Color Slides Enliven Views of Local Homes

The new activity at John H. Curtis' Realateria is another example of a hobby developing into a business. The office is now equipped with a projector and screen which shows to prospective customers a view, in full color, of homes in which they may be interested.

The idea began on a recent trip taken by Mr. and Mrs. Curtis to San Diego, Imperial Valley and the Salton Sea where they took colored slides. Then the thought occurred to them, "Why not use this method of picture-viewing in our office?"

The result may be seen by anyone interested, at the realtor's office.

'Crusade Day' Set Here to Fight Cancer

Mrs. George B. Holmes, American Cancer Society Unit Chairman for Sierra Madre, has announced that Crusade Day will be conducted here this Saturday, May 7.

"On Crusade Day, citizens who have not contributed to the Cancer Crusade are given the opportunity to join the battle against cancer by giving their contributions to the Crusaders stationed throughout the business section of Sierra Madre," she stated.

Mrs. Holmes also released the A.C.S. analysis of its 1954-55 budget, so that every prospective contributor in Sierra Madre might be aware of how his donation will be spent to fight cancer.

The release showed that 60% of the Crusade funds will be retained in California, where they will be devoted to both state-wide and local programs of cancer control.

Twenty-seven per cent will be allotted for national research grants. Local research thus supported by the Society includes projects in the California Institute of Technology, University of California at Los Angeles, University of Southern California, Los Angeles County General Hospital, and Los Angeles County General Hospital.

Twelve per cent of the Crusade funds will be spent for nation-wide professional education, and only 3% will be in administrative expenditures.

"I am sure," Mrs. Holmes declared, "that everyone who is familiar with the American Cancer Society's contribution to the fight against cancer will feel that the dollars he gives this month to the Cancer Crusade will be a sound investment in the battle to rid this country of a deadly foe that strikes an estimated one out of every four Americans."

The following members of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club will be in Roberts Market and Roess Market to distribute literature about cancer and to collect donations to further the work of the society:

Mrs. Henry Asher, Mrs. James Gittinger, Mrs. Ruby Barham, Mrs. Francis Maxstadt, Mrs. Hollis Lindstrom and Mrs. Ethel Bensinger.

Royal Wedding Seen In Norway New Film

The pomp and ceremony of the wedding of Princess Ragnhild Alexandria of Norway will be pictured Thursday evening, May 5, at the Pasadena Civic Auditorium when Hjordis Parker, a resident of Sierra Madre, presents her new color film, "Norway, Her Life and People." Mrs. Parker was one of a few photographers permitted to film the royal wedding which was attended by Princess Margaret Rose and most of the crowned heads of northern Europe.

Other sequences include the city life of Oslo; the industries, including lumber, hydro-electric power and the merchant marine; rural life as shown by a trip across the country from Sogn Fjord to eastern Norway; life on a fishing island and the spectacular scenery of this hardy little country. The material for the film succeeds Mrs. Parker's first film of Norway which was presented at the Pasadena Civic Auditorium last year.

"Norway" closes the Elmer Wilson Spring Adventure Series and good seats are available at the Civic Auditorium.

of maintenance, with $150 required to meet that minimum for 1955.

The cleanup at the cemetery, he said, has begun and will be completed by Memorial Day. City Council has written off the $142 owing on past water bills, and bills are payable by the Cemetery Association beginning April 1.

Harold Stein, owner of the local theater, also addressed the assemblage, telling of the many calls and letters he had received regretting the recent closing of his theater due to lack of business. It had been suggested, he said, that books of tickets be sold in advance, good for six months, to see if the public could guarantee a certain revenue.

He pointed out that in a small town a theater is actually a semi-public property rather than a private business enterprise as in a city theater. He said, however, that small town movies are rapidly disappearing throughout the country and it is a rare case when one reopens.

Youthful participation in the evening's agenda was demonstrated further by the fact that the Teen-agers club has formed committees to parallel the six committees of the Youth Activities Association. At the April 27 meeting of the Teen-agers, held at the Park House because the organization has a great need of chairs, Bob Richter presided as chairman and Dorothy Neumann, heading the finance committee, reported that membership fees had been recommended at $5 per year, made payable in quarters. Put to a vote, it passed unanimously.

Others whose names appeared as chairmen and committee members were Pat Sewall, Michele Pannetier, Mick McCormack, Courtney Shropshire, Dick Stirtan, Walter Wilson, and Diddy Hurwit.

L. P. Marsh Joins Staff At J. C. Loomis Office

Leland P. Marsh, formerly associated with Harry A. Lange's real estate office, has joined the staff of John C. Loomis, where he will continue his activities as real estate broker and salesman.

Mr. Marsh has had 20 years' experience in this field, serving as manager and real estate appraiser for Equitable Life Insurance Co. of Iowa, and other Iowa associations. Owner of several properties in Sierra Madre, he will devote his full time in the Loomis office to the sale of real estate, property management and rentals.

SIERRA MADRE NEWS-7

Thursday, May 5, 1955

Several money making projects were discussed at the Park House meeting, when it was reported that by-laws for the club had been drawn with the help of Mr. Tom Suttner.

Donations to the club will be welcomed, chairs especially, and may be made by calling Dick Stirtan at CU. 5-0163, or Walter Wilson at CU. 5-9512. The Teen-agers will be glad to haul them away.

Lesson-Sermon Text 'Adam and Fallen Man'

The uplifting power of God made manifest in His great love for man keynotes the Lesson-Sermon "Adam and Fallen Man" in the Christian Science churches Sunday.

"As in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive" (I Cor. 15:22) is the Golden Text of the sermon.

A reference from Revelation (21:3, 7) develops this thought. It reads, "I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men . . . and God himself shall be with them, and be their God . . . He that overcometh shall inherit all things."

On this subject Mary Baker Eddy says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "Popular theology takes up the history of man as if he began materially right, but immediately fell into mental sin whereas revealed religion proclaims the Science of Mind and its formations as being in accordance with the first chapter of the Old Testament, when God, Mind, spake and it was done" (p. 557).

CONGREGATIONAL OFFERS NURSERY BABY SITTERS

Mrs. Carrie Deutsch will be in charge of the nursery at the Congregational Church during services, assisted by the girls of the Pioneer Fellowship, the Junior High P.F.'ers.

During the earlier morning services, beginning at 9:30 o'clock, when a full Church School is in session, those in charge of the nursery will be Mrs. Edward Verreux and Mrs. Lewis George.

News of the Churches

Need of Faith Described by Rev. Lindsay

The Rev. George Lindsay's sermon at the Congregational Church this Sunday will be entitled: "The Faith of Our Families."

Last Sunday Rev. Lindsay said: "When we are children we depend on external authority, that of our parents, to control most of our lives, but the mark of growing maturity in the child is his ability to make his own decisions, not by reason of any external authority, but by the inner controls which he develops."

Describing the similar pattern in the relations of people and their government, he continued:

"In the face of the alarms of the times, some misguided people have, in the name of patriotism, insisted that there needs to be external controls, in the form of oaths, restrictions and investigations. By so doing, they have retarded the development of democracy."

That the same pattern prevails in the realm of faith, Mr. Lindsay showed by outlining the way in which external authority—of Church, Pope, Creed or Scripture—has sought to supplant the inner authority of the Spirit, which is of God, and to which Jesus always appealed.

"We face, today, a great decision, between the external authority of Church or State, and the internal authority of God. One cannot supplant the other. Only if we have the

Mysteries in History Rabbi Steckel Topic

Rabbi Charles W. Steckel of the Foothill Jewish Community Center, 212 Lima St., will speak on "Great Mysteries of History" Friday night, May 6, at 8:30 o'clock. Cantor George David will chant the services.

In honor of Mother's Day, the Women's Division of the Center will sponsor the services under the leadership of Mrs. William Glesby, president. The public is invited to attend.

"Will Man Rob God?" Junior Minister Asks

"Will Man Rob God?" is the title of the sermon to be given by the junior minister, James Browning, at Bethany Junior Church Sunday. This service is a regular feature at Bethany and is designed for and limited to boys and girls of junior age.

The Junior Choir, under the direction of Miss Leona James, will sing a special arrangement of "There Is a Fountain." The Junior Church is held simultaneously with the adult service but is shorter and is followed by an activity period to avoid some of the difficulties that young people experience when compelled to sit still too long.

James Browning is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Browning, 3665 Shadow Grove Rd., Pasadena.

courage to seek the inner authority will we find the true freedom which is promised all men as children of God."

Bethany Holds Second Annual Mission Week

The Second Annual Missionary Conference is in progress at Bethany Church this week. Following a theme, "The Field Is the World," speakers and films have been brought to the church to emphasize the privileges and responsibilities of world-wide missionary vision.

Day-time sessions on Tuesday featured Rev. Art Zylstra of Panama and Rev. Herbert Cassel of Guatemala. Wednesday night brought Rev. John Schwab, veteran missionary from Tokyo, with a film report of student life and missionary activity in Japan.

Friday night, May 6, at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Dean Blackwelder, just returned from missionary work in Brazil, will speak. Mr. Blackwelder was a Sunday School teacher at Bethany Church before he went to South America. Following his message and films a new color motion picture of the work of Gospel Recordings will be screened. This organization, under the direction of Miss Joy Ridderhof, has pioneered in language recordings for unreached tribes all over the world.

The Sunday services will be given to the Missionary Conference. A special children's rally will be held at 9:30 a.m. with a message by Rev. J. C. Brumfield, director of the Radio Kids Bible Club, an interdenominational coast-to-coast radio broadcast. Mr. Brumfield will report on his recent round-the-world inspection trip of missionary work among children.

At 11 a.m. Rev. Arthur Muow, missionary from Borneo, will speak. His ministry in America has been unusually effective as he relates some of the thrilling incidents during his work among the primitive head-hunters of Borneo. At 7:30 p.m. Mr. Cecil Kettle, layman from Menlo Park Calif., director of the Chinese Native Evangelistic Crusade, will speak and bring film reports of the Chinese work in Hong Kong and Indonesia. Following his message will be a film of the Sudan Interior Mission in the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan.

Bethany Church has maintained for some time an ambitious program of foreign missionary support. The entire of the first Sunday of each month both in Sunday School and in the two church services go to missions unless otherwise designated.

Five missionary couples, an additional missionary in South America and a Bible Institute in Belgium receive monthly gifts that total more than $700.

New Church Group Organized Here

The Senior High P.F.'ers are the Pilgrim Fellowship with Wayne Thomas as president. They will entertain their parents next Sunday as part of their program.

Sermonette

"WITH BANNERS FLYING" By Raynor Smith

In C. S. Lewis' Screwtape Letters an elderly devil in hell is giving advice to a junior tempter on earth. An appalling situation has taken place in that the intended victim has joined a church. Screwtape expresses the tragedy thus: "As we see (the church) spread out through all time and space and rooted in eternity, terrible as an army with banners. That, I confess, is a spectacle which makes our boldest tempters uneasy."

The reality of the situation is that the church is the one thing that lifts life above the level of hell. It is the church that empowers life to overcome sin, that gives life a fellowship to counteract loneliness, that gives life a fourth dimension of eternity.

Consider, first, that it is the church that leads one to that source of power which frees one from sin. Each of us has a way of trying to define sin so that we think we are free from it. Each of us, however, is a victim of some form of sin. Gian-Carlo Menotti has defined sin in terms of "all that we might have done that we did not do." No one is above having done less than his best. But the Church will not let us become complacent about our shortcomings. It shows us our possibilities and then brings us to the person of Christ who empowers us to fulfill our possibilities.

Consider, second, that it is the church which gives life a fellowship to counteract loneliness. T. S. Eliot in The Cocktail Party has said that "Hell is oneself . . . alone." William Morris echoes this when he says, "Lack of fellowship is hell." The church comes as a heavenly fellowship, driving a sword into the heart of loneliness. "Where two or three are gathered together" in the name of Christ there is his resurrection presence to be found. Through the fellowship of believers each person finds the Eternal Companion.

Consider, third, that it is the church that gives life a fourth dimension of eternity. It is the devil's strategy to keep one's eyes on the clock and the ground. It is the strategy of God to lift one's eyes beyond the clock and the calendar, beyond time and space. Ola Winslow writes of how the early New Englanders built their meeting houses at the center of their villages. The significance of this was that "In some way it teased the thought of village men and women beyond village boundaries, and the Here and Now of their lives. It stood for the eternal against the transient." This is especially true of the church. It lifts our minds beyond the boundaries of our narrow lives, beyond the treadmill of the Here and Now of our lives. It lifts our eyes beyond the transient annoyances of earthly existence to the eternal reaches of the Kingdom of Heaven. It gives us a destiny beyond history that provides us with a mission within history.

In a world of despair, it is the Church—with banners flying—that stands as the hope of man.

Special Mother's Day Service at Methodist

Mother's Day will be observed at the Sierra Madre Methodist Church with the Rev. Raynor Smith preaching on "Credentials of Motherhood." Rev. Smith will speak at both the 9:30 and 11 a.m. worship services.

The "Methodist Men" will meet Monday evening, May 9, for a barbecue dinner. The committee in charge of the dinner consists of Robert Mannion, William Heller, James Bowman and Sam Kirk. The speaker for the evening will be Dr. Frank Williams, Executive Secretary of the Southern California Conference of the Methodist Church. He will show color pictures and talk on "Methodist Men at Work in This Conference." Dinner reservations may be made with Ernest Phillips, Custer 5-1998.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet Friday, May 13, in the church parlor. Mrs. Fred Brereton, vice-president, will be in charge of the program for the day. Mrs. Marshall Annis and Mrs. Ernest Phillips are luncheon hostesses. This will be an "Every-Member" luncheon and will be preceded by a pledge service.

BETHANY MEMBERS OCCUPY "OVERFLOW ROOM" SUNDAY

More than forty members of Bethany Church's congregation occupied seats in an "overflow room" and listened to the service by means of a loud speaker last Sunday. It is anticipated that this arrangement will continue and thus make possible the accommodation of visitors who desire to attend the worship services at 11 a.m. each Sunday in the Church auditorium.

Power of Love Theme In Religious Science

"The Power of Love" will be the subject of the Sunday sermon, May 8, at 11 a.m. by Dr. Ethel Barnhart, at Santa Anita Church of Religious Science, 778 S. Rosemead Blvd., Pasadena.

Big Gain in Concert Group Memberships

One of the most successful membership campaigns in the nine-year history of the Foothill Community Concert Association was concluded last Saturday, according to Garth Duell, president of the organization. Mrs. Noren Eaton, chairman of the local unit of the Association, reports on all-time high of more than 200 members from Sierra Madre.

Mr. Duell announced that this year, contrary to the usual procedure, the selection of artists will be postponed until later in May. This decision, adopted by the board of directors of the Foothill Concert Association at a meeting here Saturday night, was made necessary because of plans to modernize and improve the MD auditorium where the concerts are held.

The auditorium will not be available during the time of renovation. So, until this exact period is known later in May, the final selection of concert dates and artists will be delayed. However, dates and artists will be determined before the end of this month, and the complete information—names of artists and dates of concerts for 1955-56 season—will be announced immediately thereafter, Mr. Duell said.

He stressed the point that improvements to the auditorium will in no way affect the concert association's plans for the most successful season ever, and expects that the contemplated improvements in seating and other facilities will add to the comfort of concertgoers.

"MARA" MAKES RACE

Barney's love of sailing has taken him into competitions too numerous to name in full, but prominent among them have been the Gold Cup races from Newport to San Pedro; the Channel Island races from San Pedro around Santa Cruz and other islands; and the Lip-ton Trophy races that designate a 12-mile course off the coast of Southern California.

What happens to the "Mara" and her crew today will not be known until the race is ended tomorrow, maybe late into the dark hours tomorrow—or even later, depending on the weather.

On one of these sea-running jaunts the weather gave Barney and his companions so much trouble that they still refer to it as the trip of the "barking dog navigation." When a heavy fog at night forced them to crawl while approaching Ensenada, pulling themselves from one kelp bed to another, they hugged the shoreline to taunt the dogs along the beaches.

So far as the taunting was concerned, however, it was the dogs that started it—and by so doing saved the sailors. When the crew barked back, the dogs set up a series of howls and challenges that enabled "Mara's" men to gauge their distance from the rocky shallows and thus keep to sea.

Even then, during that "rocky" voyage when other ships were having trouble, too, the "Mara" finished well enough to win a trophy—although of what size and tribute Barney can't remember.

He has forgotten more sailings than most men will ever experience.—S. C.

'Cavalleria Rusticana' Presentation Here

"Cavalleria Rusticana," the opera by Pietro Mascagni, will be presented by the Pasadena College Operatic Workshop in the Sierra Madre City School auditorium Friday evening, May 13.

Among the Sierra Madreans participating in the production, rehearsed for three months, will be Margaret Schaper, wife of the Rev. Robert Schaper of Bethany Church. Mrs. Schaper, who will sing the leading role of Santuzza, is experienced in operatic roles as well as production.

Judith Anderson of Sierra Madre will be heard in the part of Mama Lucia, and Shirley Volkoff, also a local singer, will be in the chorus.

Singing the tenor role will be Frank Small of Whittier who was heard recently in Sierra Madre in a cantata at the school auditorium. The role of Lola will be sung by Lois Sharp of Pasadena.
